

HOW TO READ AN MP – A Guide for Voters

With the obvious distrust amongst the public of everything to do with MPs, we give below a guide as to how to read what an MP means when he is in the news.

If he's acting jocular	He's about to lie
If he adopts a serious expression	He's about to lie
If he leans forward and looks sincere	He's about to lie
If he uses the phrase 'my friends'	He's lying
If he makes promises at election time	He's lying
If he talks about 'healing Britain'	He'll make it worse
If he says he's for the working class	He's certainly not
If he says 'we're leading the world'	We aren't
If he deplores the use of tax havens	He's got one
If he says 'I've always been passionate about (whatever)		He never was
If he says 'I have always been clear on (whatever).....'		He never was
And so on.....
